
34 simulated rows. Two contiguous phases span each interval; open/filled symbols are arbitrary simulated events.
Five categorical fields use the same five source levels. No clinical response, drug identity or stopping status is inferred.